SA24 Introductory Literacy Tutoring: Assessment and 4 session bundle

Bidding begins at $75

Donated by Betta Risa

Do you know someone who is struggling to read? A slow reader? Someone diagnosed with dyslexia? I can help! I am a Wilson Reading System (WRS) Level I certified Dyslexia Practitioner! I'm offering a diagnostic test, the Word Identification and Spelling Test, an nationally standardized assessment that will assess fundamental literacy skills and 4 additional tutoring sessions. This will help diagnose specific deficits in sound-symbol knowledge, word-identification and spelling, as well as provide an introduction to the WRS 10-part lesson plan.

Background Information: Wilson Reading System is an Orton-Gillingham based, multi-sensory, systematic approach to reading and spelling. It is research-based and aligned with guidelines from the International Dyslexia Association. More information can be found here: www.wilsonlanguage.com . Please note that most individuals with language-based learning challenges, such as dyslexia, do require extensive tutoring/remediation in order to see significant progress.
