The Annual Service Auction of the Unitarian Universalist Church of the South Hills

Live Auction Items

LA13 "Unbroken - The Heart of Ukraine" Print

Bidding begins at $20

Donated by Rachael Beam

If you missed the opportunity to purchase one of these prints last year, now's your chance. Pittsburgh artist Linda Barnicott was inspired to paint "Unbroken - The Heart of the Ukraine" when the war with Russia broke out. For tax purposes, she needed to work with a charitable organization to receive and distribute the funds directly to a humanitarian relief organization. She chose Sunnyhill to be that partner. Each print is 11 x 14 inches with an image area of 8 x 10 inches on archival paper.

LA4 A Basket of Soul

Bidding begins at $25

For the family that loves to play together, a basket of brand new games, toys and craft items – plus a gift card! There is something for everyone in this basket of goodies. It includes Sleeping Queens, Logic Links, Amaze, Kaleidoscope making kit, Hey Clay air dry clay, Zoo Animals sticker book, an Egg Toss Flyer, a fidget stretch toy, a deck of cards and a pack of 12 brush markers. If that's not enough for your family, there's also a $50 gift card to Learning Express. Enjoy some unplugged family time with this basket!

LA2 Buffalo Trace Bourbon

Bidding begins at $30

Donated by Elizabeth & Tom Scanlon

This deep amber whiskey has a complex aroma of vanilla, mint and molasses. Pleasantly sweet to the taste with notes of brown sugar and spice that give way to oak, toffee, dark fruit and anise. This whiskey finishes long and smooth with serious depth. Why is this fabulous whiskey so difficult to come by? It takes years to age. The recent whiskey boom surprised even those in the industry, and Buffalo Trace couldn't respond at the speed, say, a candy bar maker could. Someone you know is jonesing for a bottle right now!

LA3 Eagle Rare Bourbon!! Snag it!

Bidding begins at $40

Donated by Elizabeth & Tom Scanlon

Eagle Rare bourbons are some of the most sought-after bottles on the market. Aged for no less than 10 years, each barrel used to age Eagle Rare is hand-selected to offer consistent flavor from batch to batch, but also to showcase each batch's unique flavors and aromas. With a complex nose bringing forward notes of toffee, orange peel, herbs, and honey — balanced with delicate aromas of leather and oak — Eagle Rare has a bold taste that's become a favorite among bourbon connoisseurs. Eagle Rare is hard to find mainly because it is an allocated spirit. With the rise in demand and stable and controlled supply, it will never reach equilibrium. Eagle Rare is released yearly, but in limited quantities, so you can consider yourself lucky if you snag a bottle — and here's your chance! At our local Wine & Spirits Store, when a small quantity arrives it's completely gone by 9:15am. Have a 9-5 job? You are so out of luck. Except now. There is only one. Make sure it's yours.

$20 per person, 6 people maximum

Sat, Sept 30, 7:00pm at Sunnyhill

Donated by Mary Jo Sonntag and Marlene Parrish

Spend an evening making new friends as you work together to solve the Sour Grapes of Wrath Murder Mystery. Each of you will play a character in the mystery. One of you will be the murderer. Here's the scenario: One year ago, Robert Killingsworth bought the farm. Six months later, he was dead - leaving his widow, Elizabeth, to tend to their fledgling winery and vineyard on the outskirts of California's wine country. With mounting debts and no clue as to how to run a business, Elizabeth is desperate to sell the farm and recoup her losses. The fierce drought and shaky economy, however, have left the Killingsworth Farm on the market for far too long. One early autumn day, six people passed through the gates of Killingsworth Farm to see Elizabeth - one of them, a cold-blooded Killer...

SA11 Fox Hunter Antiquarian Book Print

SA12 Dandy Fox Antiquarian Book Print

SA13 Black Cat with the Fabulous Hat! Antiquarian Art Print

Bidding begins at $20 each (prints are individually auctioned)

Donated by Audre Huffman-Sweethaven

FabFunky Antiquarian Book Prints present Fox Hunter Original illustrations, printed onto the real pages of antique British dictionaries and journals. Kelly Stevens-McLaughlan is the artist and designer behind the FabFunky name. Colorful vintage characters, magical creatures, whimsical Victorian engravings - each presented in sumptuous colors on real-life British antiquarian history. FabFunky Dictionary Prints bring the eccentric side of 19th-century Britain into your home. Intriguing, vibrant images are set on a backdrop of wild Scottish folk tales, magical Celtic legends, or deliciously out-of-date English journals and dictionaries. Every print is unique. Each one is hand-designed and printed onto the original page - no one else will have the same piece. Some have age marks, and others include authentic corporation seals in the corner. Yours may even have handwritten notes made by a 19th-century reader. Each print is hand signed by the artist, Kelly Stevens McLaughlan. They look great on their own and simply magnificent when displayed together. The print is mounted on an antique dictionary page and artist board then matted to a 14" x 11"/35.5x28 cm mount. Unframed. Imported from England, of course.

We'll tailor our sessions to your singing goals and create a practice plan for you to continue growing beyond our time together. I'll contact you to set up the timing and other logistics. These coaching sessions are best for mature voices; ages 18 and over only, please!

SA5 19-Crimes Wine Basket (6 bottles)

Bidding begins at $35

Donated by Elizabeth & Tom Scanlon

This wine reminds us of how twisted our English ancestors were when they set-up a penal colony in Australia. 19 Crimes turned convicts into colonists. In lieu of death, punishment by transportation began in 1788. As pioneers, they built a new country. The wine is a celebration of the rules they broke and the culture they built. This collection fine wine includes Hard Chard (the only white), The Uprising, The Warden, Sauvignon Block, The Punishment, and a 2020 Cabernet Sauvignon.

A Few Auction Reminders

- ◆ Create your account for the Silent Auction BEFORE arriving. We are so excited to be using new software for the Silent Auction! Bidding takes place from your phone and anyone who creates an online account can bid – you don't even have to be at the auction!
 - Go to Sunnyhill's webpage at 32auctions
 - Click on "View all items"
 - Click "Create an account" (yellow box at top of page)
 - Follow the prompts to create your account
 - You'll be approved by the Administrator
 - Create your account ahead of the auction. Don't wait until you arrive!
- The Silent Auction will be open extended hours. You may bid from Saturday, April 15, 5:00pm to Sunday, April 16, 5:00pm.
- ◆ Bring a plate of cookies to share.
- ◆ Print and bring your own Auction Booklet, or better yet save the booklet to your phone and don't print at all!
- ◆ All sales are final. After all, this is a fundraiser for Sunnyhill!
- ◆ All services must be redeemed before the 2024 service auction. First and foremost, try your best to not reschedule your donated event. However, if it's unavoidable, please ensure that it's completed before the 2024 auction.
- ◆ If you cannot attend on April 15 but would like to make purchases, you can get a proxy (someone else who is attending) to make bids and/or signup for events on your behalf. Either ask someone you know who is attending or ask the Service Auction Team for help. You will receive a paddle number and an invoice but will not be charged for the April 15 entrance and dinner cost.
- ◆ No money or credit cards are needed the night of the auction. You will receive your invoice via email about one week after the auction. Your prompt payment is appreciated.
